3. Approach

After a targeted applicant has the skills we will approach that person directly.

4. Interview

We establish the absolute suitability of the candidate by thorough screening.

5. Shortlist

On completion of the interviews, a shortlist of the strongest candidates is presented to the client.

6. Client selection

7. Securing the candidate

We make an offer

8. Research

Utilizing our in-house facilities, we investigate the market and the people who potentially are able to do the job.

9. After Care

We will remain in contact with the candidate, communicating regularly during the 'settling in' period.

PRI's 9-step Head-Hunting Strategy

PRI delivers first class retained Executive Search services using a project management process. This is set up on initial contact with our business partners and continues well after the successful candidate has joined the organization.

1. Definition

Working with the client, we quantify and qualify the skills needed for the job and the reasons why these are important.

2. Confirmation

After a specification has been decided upon, we confirm this in an assignment profile.
